

J. D. Hutchins and wife went to Boston on the excursion Wednesday.

Mrs. White of Hyde Park is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Curtis Downes.

The two Hammell families are preparing to move to St. Johnsbury this week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Coomer are the happy parents of a boy, born Friday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Amsden are visiting friends in Boston and Taunton, Mass., for a few weeks.

G. A. Dow of West Glover was here recently and placed a New England telephone in A. C. Chase's house.

Mrs. Tressa Ross, who has been caring for her sister, Mrs. Richardson, and little child, has returned to her home in Canada.

IRASBURG.

Taplin & Rowell have sold their farm on Morrill hill to A. C. Curtis. Price $9,000.

Members of Colton chapter, O. E. S., attended the district meeting held at Island Pond last week. All report a very pleasant time.

A good attendance is desired at the regular meeting of the I. O. G. T. next Wednesday night. Special business, including report of representatives to Grand Lodge.

Mrs. Mary J. Leonard died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Thomas Smith, Sunday morning. Funeral services at the house Tuesday at 11 o'clock. Obituary notice later.

Dr. and Mrs. Preston Bauclerk of Concord, N. H., Dr. and Mrs. E. W. Gaylor of Boston and Mrs. S. A. Ormsbee of Montpelier were in town last week to attend the Templeton-Bauclerk wedding.

A large number of Harry Cook's friends met at his home Tuesday evening to remind him of his 21st birthday. The evening was spent with music and games. Ice cream and cake were served and a very pleasant time was enjoyed by all.

Course tickets for White Star course of entertainments to be held here this fall and winter will be on sale at Sears & Russell's store to-morrow morning. It promises to be the best course of entertainments ever given in town. All who wish to attend should get their tickets early.

A quiet but pretty wedding occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Bauclerk last Tuesday afternoon when their daughter, Laura Marie, was united in marriage to Dr. Percy Walter Templeton. Rev. Josiah Poston performed the ceremony. Refreshments were served, immediately after which the happy couple left amid showers of rice and best wishes of the family for Montreal where they spent a few days. Mr. and Mrs. Templeton have lived in our town since childhood and have a large circle of friends who extend hearty congratulations and best wishes.

LOWELL.

Mr. and Mrs. Gage of Hardwick spent last week in town.

Mrs. Walter Pope was quite ill last week, also Mrs. Touchette.

Bernie Wilson and H. Arthur Parker went to Boston Thursday.

Miss Bessie Murphy is visiting in Albany at the home of her sister, Mrs. Dyer.

Mrs. Phillip Paronto went to Burlington Wednesday to have her eyes treated.

Miss Severance has gone to Lowell, N. Y., where she has a position in an educational institute.

On account of poor health Wallace Farman is home from St. Johnsbury where he has been attending school.

Mrs. Sheehan went to Craftsbury last week to care for her daughter, Mrs. Johnson, who is very ill with stomach trouble.

J. H. Silsby came from Hartford, Conn. Wednesday. He brought ten men with him to work in the woods for different parties in town.

Wm. Kelley has moved into his hotel which he recently purchased. Mr. Patterson will move into the tenement Mr. Kelley has vacated.

Those from out of town who attended the Knight-Carter wedding were Mrs. F. E. Bullard and son of Montreal, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Heath and Mr. and Mrs. C. Thompson of Cassville, Que., Mr. Clark Covey of Libbytown, Que. and Miss Rose Robinson of Ayers Cliff, Que.

On Wednesday evening, Sept. 25, a large company of relatives and friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. E. Carter to witness the marriage of their eldest daughter, Elma, to Herbert Geo. Knight, both of Lowell. One corner was tastefully arranged with evergreens and flowers to which the bride party proceeded to the wedding march played by Miss A. Belle England. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Harry D. Felby of North Hyde Park assisted by Rev. A. H. Tilson of Arthrop, N. H., grandfather of the bride. Roy W. Knight of East Barnet, cousin of the groom, acted as best man and Miss Annie Carter, sister of the bride, as maid of honor. Refreshments were served in the dining room where the tables were decorated with cut flowers. The happy couple received many useful and beautiful presents, including a dinner-set, table-linen, silver, china, glass and a sum of money from distant relatives. They left for Stanstead on their wedding trip, with the good wishes of those present.

MORGAN.

Miss Ann E. Little is home from her visit in Watertown, Mass.

E. R. Flanders has sold his farm to G. N. Corlies of Barnston, Can.

Wm. Vinton and Francis Hill are home from their summer's work selling waffles.

Miss Bernice Parker visited her friend Catherine Wilcox Saturday and Sunday, Oct. 5th and 6th.

O. P. Wilcox now has the finest cottage on the lake shore. It is 24 ft. square with wide verandah on the side next the lake. Two stories in height, with large windows making an ideal summer home.

The editor invites you to a treat by reading the opening chapters of "The Lion and the Mouse," in this issue. This is a great story concerning a great man. It has created a great sensation and is a great seller. You can read it serially in this paper without cost, though it has cost the editor a good royalty to publish it.

MORGAN CENTER.

Mrs. C. L. Burroughs spent a part of last week at Island Pond with her daughter, Mrs. Ralph Ellis.

Mr. and Mrs. Amasa Dwire from West Charleston were called here last week to attend the funeral of Mrs. Dwire's mother.

There was a pleasant gathering at the home of Mrs. J. Ellis Wednesday evening, Oct. 9th, to celebrate the 59th wedding anniversary of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dudley. They were presented with quite a number of nice and useful gifts, and all present enjoyed the occasion, and wish them many years of happiness.

Mrs. B. H. Ainsworth died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Rich, Sunday, Oct. 6th, aged 88 years. Mrs. Ainsworth has been a resident of this place for many years. She leaves one son, L. Ainsworth, of South Dakota, and several daughters, all of whom assisted in caring for her in her last years of sickness. The funeral services were held in the Union church Tuesday, Oct. 8th. There were many floral offerings in remembrance of her great love of flowers. Besides her own family circle she leaves many friends to mourn her loss.

NEWPORT.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Hapgood are visiting in Winsted, Conn.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Chase are visiting relatives in Coaticook, P. Q.

E. C. Blanchard and family visited in Boston and vicinity last week.

E. C. Hilton injured one hand badly at Prouty & Miller's mill Tuesday.

Miss Mamie Williams is employed for the present in the national bank.

Mrs. Geo. D. Gilchrist is visiting her sister, Mrs. Adams, in Providence, R. I.

Mr. Spaulding's house boat was towed into port Monday and anchored near the Bluffs.

Mrs. L. B. Wellman entertained her lady friends with whist at her home Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Ira J. Parker has returned from a two weeks' visit to relatives in Boston and vicinity.

F. A. Woodbridge of Newark, N. J., a former resident, called on friends here recently.

Mrs. Z. M. Mansur, Mrs. C. R. Storrs and others are in Boston this week attending the food fair.

E. W. Langmaid has moved into the tenement in the Camp block recently vacated by Mr. Shepard.

Leo Young has moved from the tenement in the Camp block to the Holbrook house on Pleasant street.

A. C. Clark of the customs force is taking a vacation of ten days visiting in Boston and other points of interest.

The Canadian Pacific railroad are reconstructing the floor of their passenger shed and making other needed repairs.

District Superintendent Watson has rented the Davis tenement on Pleasant street, recently vacated by Bert Watkins.

A. J. Miller was in Barton Friday, Oct. 4, attending the reunion of Co. D, 6th Vt. Vols., of which organization he is secretary.

Miss Fernie Mowry has been engaged as a teacher in the graded school to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Miss Warner.

Mrs. Parker and Mrs. Hillard, who have been living in one of Dr. Currier's tenements on South street, are moving to Batesville.

The iron fence about the Gaines property at the corner of Second street and Main has been removed and the improved appearance is very marked.

Owing to a washout near Sutton, P. Q., Tuesday, the Montreal express was obliged to come around by way of Lennoxville and was about two hours late.

At the special village meeting held Friday evening, Oct. 4, a sum of $300 was voted the trustees to be expended in the further improvement of the streets as they see fit.

Mr. Langmaid, who has purchased the bakery part of J. F. Lambert's business, is building his store on Main street and will fit up the building in the rear of Humphrey's store for a bakery.

The first regular meeting of the season of Lakeside chapter, O. E. S., was held Monday evening, Oct. 7. The customary opening banquet was not held on that date but will be held later in the month.

The Newport Electric Light Co. has erected a line of poles in Derby carrying wires to the new house being erected by G. D. Gilchrist. They expect to furnish light to several other houses in that vicinity.

Harry T. Robbins has received the appointment as cashier of the national bank, to succeed Robert J. Wright, deceased. Mr. Robbins has been a faithful employee of the bank for many years and the promotion is well deserved.

F. W. Carr has vacated the Chamberlin house on Second street, recently purchased by Josiah Groat. Mr. Groat will repair the property extensively and it will be occupied by Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Groat. Mr. Carr has moved into the Sleeper house on Prospect street.

The editor invites you to a treat by reading the opening chapters of "The Lion and the Mouse," in this issue. This is a great story concerning a great man. It has created a great sensation and is a great seller. You can read it serially in this paper without cost, though it has cost the editor a good royalty to publish it.

The winter schedule of trains on the Boston & Maine railroad went into effect Monday, Oct. 7. The schedule is practically the same as in former years excepting that the mail train at 12:33 continues to Sherbrooke, taking the place of the mixed train, and the evening mail arrives and departs five minutes later.

Quite an exciting runaway occurred Wednesday afternoon when a horse belonging to F. P. Davis and driven by Mrs. Willey took fright at an automobile and ran down South street. The turnout collided with a double team attached to a hayrack, badly demolishing the buggy and quite severely injuring Mrs. Willey.

NEWPORT CENTER.

Orin Adams has gone to the hospital in Burlington for treatment.

Repairs have been made recently on the horse-sheds near the F. B. church.

Mrs. J. B. Higgins attended the state C.E. convention at Swanton the past week. The Gleaners took in about $25 at their chicken pie supper last Wednesday evening.

Mr. Newcomb, agent for the American Bible society, has just completed a canvass of the town.

Summer Eastman has bought George Armstrong's village place and will take possession the first of November. Consideration, $650.

Among those who went on the excursion to Boston were Frank Rollins, Mrs. Chas. Marsh and Mrs. Jane Bartlett. Mrs. Bartlett will spend the winter with her son, Ernest.

TROY.

Jay W. Percy has sold his house to Mrs. Edna Cross of Westfield.

Miss Nellie Hartwell is home from Barton Landing for a few days.

A. W. Edmund is having a piazza built on the front of his house. George Meyers of Jay is doing the work.

Nelson Martin is having the house he bought of Mrs. D. H. Buck painted and papered, and will move soon.

Mrs. Samantha Bowley of Westmore is helping to care for J. B. Aiken, who though improving is still very ill.

Mrs. Foster Kinney and children of Barton Landing are visiting Mrs. Kinney's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arad Brown.

Mrs. C. L. Hutchins of Montgomery was at Mrs. B. Houston's Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week, with a fine line of millinery.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Abel are home from the White Mountain House, Fabyan's, N. H., where they served in capacity of chefs the past summer.

Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Gray were in St. Johnsbury Thursday and Friday of this week. The doctor went to attend the meeting of the Vermont Medical society.

Fred St. John of this place and George Coburn of Westfield were arrested for drunkenness Monday evening, and paid their fines. Thomas King left sometime during the night Sunday for Canada to escape arrest.

Lemuel Greenwood who has lived in town most of the time for many years died October 3rd. Mr. Greenwood was a hard-working, industrious man; he worked at his trade as blacksmith until compelled by ill health to give up. Mr. Greenwood was born 79 years ago last May and leaves a widow and eight children to mourn the loss of a kind husband and father. The funeral was held at 2 o'clock Sunday, Oct. 6th, from the house of Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Morse where Mr. and Mrs. Greenwood have made their home for a year or more. Rev. James Ramage made some very appropriate remarks after which the burial took place in the cemetery here beside a son who died several years ago. Many beautiful flowers showed the affection of friends.

WESTFIELD.

News has been received that Charles Spicer, the sick gentleman, arrived safely at his home in Enosburg.

The M. W. A. gave a social in the hall last Thursday evening to the members of the fraternity and their ladies.

Mrs. Edna Cross has purchased J. Percy's house in Troy village and moved there. Her brother, Dan Foster, will live with her.

Thomas Gilbert has had the People's telephone installed in his house. It is expected the People's line will be extended to the north hill.

Ralph Hardy of the North hill, who entertained Alfred Sparks of Lowell, Mass., last week, is entertaining Dr. F. A. Leakey of the same city this week.

Mrs. H. B. Hitchcock, who had recovered sufficiently to go out driving again, was thrown from her carriage a second time so that now she is confined to the bed.

There will be a C. E. rally in the Cong'l church tomorrow, (Tuesday) evening, Rev. J. Poston, the county president, and Miss Grace Young, the state secretary, are to speak. Everyone is invited.

The editor invites you to a treat by reading the opening chapters of "The Lion and the Mouse," in this issue. This is a great story concerning a great man. It has created a great sensation and is a great seller. You can read it serially in this paper without cost, though it has cost the editor a good royalty to publish it.

On Sunday, Sept. 23th, Wealthy Edwards widow of the late Hiram Smith, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Martin D. Gilman, in this village, aged 67 years. The funeral was held the following Wednesday, Oct. 2nd, from the residence, the Rev. J. H. Wallace of Richmond, a former pastor, officiating. All of her children were present, also her brother, Lot Edwards, and Mrs. Edwards, of Derby, and her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Martin, of Troy, and other relatives and friends. W. D. Miller was manager and four sons acted as bearers. The interment was in the cemetery on the East Hill beside her late husband and deceased children. Wealthy was the daughter and oldest child of Noah and Keziah Farman Edwards. She was born and spent the most of her life in this vicinity. While in the employ of the late Hon. Russell S. Page of Hyde Park, father of Ex-Gov. C. S. Page, she became acquainted with the late Hiram Smith who also was in the employ of Mr. Page. They were married about 1860. They commenced housekeeping in Eden, but moved to this town in 1863. In 1866, they purchased of Noah Edwards the farm on the East Hill which was their home for many years thereafter. Nine children were born to them, six sons, three daughters. Leon, the oldest son, died in 1871, at the age of eight years, eight months. Lila, the youngest daughter, died in 1889, aged 12 years, three months. Mr. Smith, the husband and father, died in 1894, Enna, the oldest daughter, died in 1895, aged 27 years. In 1899, Mrs. Smith went to Troy village to live with her son George, who with his brother, Carroll, conducted a mercantile business there for several years. In the spring of 1906, Mrs. Smith having failed very greatly in health came to this village to live with her daughter, Mrs. Gilman. She has required much care, which has been given her faithfully and tenderly by her daughter. Mrs. Smith is survived by six children: Carroll of Foughstown, N. H., George, who at present is staying in town, Laura, who

CONTINUED ON PAGE EIGHT

No. 348

FURS

This season we are showing a line from Hansen's Empire Fur Factory of Milwaukee. This means dollar for dollar better furs than we have ever shown. Coney, Rat, Oppossum, Marten, Fox etc, and the prices range from 69c up. We invite comparison.

COATS

For Ladies, Misses, and Children, good garments, and you don't have to have a barrel of money to secure one.

A lady's long coat in a good quality gray mixture at $3.98 was not dreamed of for this season and yet that is just what we offer.

That $5.00 black coat is a surprise. Equally good value at higher prices. Also in misses' and children's coats.

A very few left-over coats at 98c and $1.50

Dress Skirts

That are made right, hang right and sell right. Ask to see them. Have just added a line of Misses Skirts. Bear them in mind.

As a result of early purchase and a recent visit to market

New Goods

FOR FALL AND WINTER
Are now arriving daily.

Dress Goods

In the new Styles and Fabrics
Fancy Fleece Goods in great variety.

Underwear for men, women and children. If you want low, prices we have them. If you want something a little better than the ordinary, come here.

Hosiery for the multitude fine and soft or heavy and strong.

DOMESTIC WRAPPERS

The kind that fit, either print or fleece.

Bed Spreads, Comfortables, and Bed Blankets.

Gloves and Mittens all sorts

Sweaters for men women and boys. Knit Shawls, Tams and Toques.

Dress Skirts, Petticoats,

Knit Skirts

Flannelette Night Robes and Night Shirts

Knit Sleeping Garments for children.

WANTED - Good yellow-eye beans. At Dairy Butter in five pound boxes.

Flour Sugar Shoes
O. W. LOCKE,

Barton Landing, Vt.

NOTICE TO POULTRY RAISERS

Ship your Live Poultry to

MICHAEL LUX & SON.

Stand Opp. Cellar 3, Faneuil Hall Market, Boston, Mass. Returns made same day poultry arrives, and no commission. Highest market price paid. Reference, Woburn National Bank. Telephone 36 3 Woburn.

41 43

Estate of Gertrude Burke
STATE OF VERMONT. At a Probate Court Orleans District, ss. held at the Probate Office within and for said District, on the 8th day of October, A. D. 1907.

Present, Hon. F. E. ALFRED, Judge, a copy of the last will and testament of Gertrude Burke, late of Lowell, in the County of Middlesex, and State of Massachusetts, deceased, duly proved and allowed in the Probate Court for the County of Middlesex, aforesaid, and of the Probate thereof being presented to the court here, that the same instrument may be allowed in this State, as the last will and testament of the said deceased, and that the said copy may be filed and recorded in the Probate Court for the District of Orleans aforesaid, agreeably to the statute in such case made and provided: It is hereby ordered that all persons concerned be notified to appear before said court at a session thereof to be held on at the Probate Office in said Newport on the 30th day of October, A. D. 1907, and contest the allowance of the said instrument and the filing and recording of the copy of said will, and the Probate thereof, as aforesaid if they see cause, for which purpose it is further ordered that a copy of the record of this order be published three weeks successively in the Orleans County Monitor, a newspaper printed at Barton, in this State, all which publications shall be previous to the said time appointed for said hearing.

By The Court. F. E. ALFRED, Judge

41-43

Particular

Printing

Particular

Particular

Particular

Particular

Particular

Particular

Particular

Particular

Particular

Particular

Particular

Particular

Particular

Particular

Particular

Particular

Particular

Particular

Particular

Particular

Particular

Particular

Particular

Particular

Particular

Particular

Particular

Particular

Particular

Particular

Particular

Particular

Particular

Particular

Particular

Particular

Particular

Particular

Particular

Particular

Particular

Particular

Particular

Particular

Particular

Particular

Particular

Particular

Particular

Particular

Particular

Particular

Particular